

INVITATION to the Open Access Event 2017

From Open Access to Open Science - how does it work?

26th October 2017 at 11:00 – 13:00 h

in Fuchs-Petrolub-Festsaal (O 138)

Open Access is increasingly becoming a standard for scientific publishing, is demanded by important research funders and pushed forward politically. We learn first-hand about the EU's perspective on this topic and receive two reports from scientists at the University of Mannheim. The focus of the event is on the concrete implementation for you as a researcher and the support options available.

- 11:00 – 11:10 h Welcome remarks
Prof. Dr. Rosemarie Tracy, Vice President for Research, Equal Opportunities and Young Researchers
Dr. Sabine Gehrlein, University Librarian
- 11:10 – 11:20 h Introduction to Open Access, Open Data, Open Science
Dr. Ursula Schlichter, EU-liaison officer
Dr. Philipp Zumstein, Open Access representative
- 11:20 – 11:45 h Perspectives of funding organisations – European and National
Mareike Schmitt, European Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations (KoWi), Brussels
- 11:45 – 12:00 h Open Science with focus on Open Access
Dr. Eike Mark Rinke, Mannheim Centre for European Social Research (MZES)
- 12:00 – 12:15 h Big Open Research Data
Anna Primpeli, Data and Web Science Group, Mannheim
- 12:15 – 12:40 h Open Access, Open Data and how we support you?
Dr. Philipp Zumstein, Open Access representative
- 12:40 – 13:00 h Talk & discussion over snacks and drinks

Please register with an informal email to zumstein@bib.uni-mannheim.de until 15th October 2017.
See also <https://www.bib.uni-mannheim.de/en/exhibitions/from-open-access-to-open-science/>

This event is jointly organised by the Division I - Strategic Planning and Research Services and the Mannheim University Library.